PROPOSED MODIFICATION OF FRENCH MINISTRY.

PARIS, Oct. 17.

All the Opposition Deputies of the Corps Legislatif will assemble, to-day or to-morrow, at Jules Favre's residence, to circulate in regard to a modification of the Ministry. The return of M. Rouher to the Cabinet, with a liberal programme, is spoken of.

A STRIKE.

The strike of merchants' clerks is quite general. The clerks hold a meeting to-day. The proposed new wages—hearing had accorded—date from commencement of the movement to call for disinterment of the petites.

ADDRESS OF THE AMERICAN AUTHORS.

Advices received from Portuguese sources represent that President Louro has extended, and not withdrawn, the amnesty decree, whereby he has granted a complete forgiveness of treason, desertion, and other political offences committed during the late civil war.

MADRID, Oct. 17.

The insurgents at Valencia, after the battle yesterday, which lasted several hours, surrendered unconditionally. They have since been disarmed, and are believed to be secreted in the city or vicinity. The government forces now occupy the city.

The settings of the Cortes were suspended with the appointment of a day for their reassembling, and it is not known when the session will be resumed.

THE SURRENDER.

A despatch from Madrid contains the following particulars of the surrender of Valencia: Gen. Contreras, in command before Valencia, to attack the city, and, if possible, storm it, at which time the artillery opened a heavy fire on the rebel position, resulting in great slaughter and causing great damage to property. The insurgents replied in earnest, the condition of things remaining thus for several days. Gen. Contreras ordered a general assault, which was made on the night of the 15th inst., a heavy fire on the rebel position preceding the attack. The assault was then continued with vigor, with the surrender of the insurgents. The following terms of capitulation were agreed upon: The insurrection has been completely suppressed, and the troops are to occupy the entire city. The insurgents are to lay down their arms, and a large number of rebels were captured with arms in their hands. Provision is made to attack the remainder in the mountains, but without effect. Arrests continue to be made of leading Republicans in Madrid.

THE RESCUED OF THE OCTORORA CROWN.

The Arcturus has an additional interest in the settlement of the Chiles Custodian, that the Commercial Court has been summoned, not to deliberate on the question of salvage, but to take evidence as to the value of the vessel at the time of the rescue, as to the right of a third party to claim the vessel, and as to the amount of the lien. The Court will not be required to sit in this judicial capacity for a week or more, as the evidence will be taken before a Commissioner.

Many persons are in town from the interior to attend the Democratic Convention to-morrow. Rev. Dr. Cheever will preach a sermon to-morrow morning to the Democrats, and they will, and they blame themselves for not having done so before. Many of the delegates are in town already, and the Democratic leaders are very busy. A number of them have been in consultation with Mr. Tilden, and it is hardly necessary to explain that if a candidate for Governor is to be selected at all, it must be done to-morrow. The nominations will be made in the afternoon, and the resolutions in the evening. Mr. Tilden will be the principal speaker at the evening meeting, and the second nomination will be made after he has spoken. The Democrats are confident that the October election will be carried by the Democrats, and they blame themselves for not having done so before. They say that they have been too much afraid of the Republicans, and that they have been too much afraid of the Republicans, and that they have been too much afraid of the Republicans, and

MR. AMENDMENTS SPEECH.

Mr. Amendments letter to our local politicians have been distasteful for some months. Sentimental he has professed none to be. They didn't want sentiment. They desired to be entertained. Laughter, something yearned for occasionally, pleaded to, disallowed to, and so forth. We have endeavored to gratify them more or less by painting in the light old-fashioned colors which the intention of the friends of the Citizens' ticket to embitter and annoy. But, like Oliver Twist, they have been calling for more.

On Saturday evening Mr. W. F. Coolbaugh read their desires, to a considerable extent, in a letter to our local politicians published yesterday. This morning we publish in full the speech delivered by Elliott Anthony, Esq., on Friday evening, last, at one of the Citizens' meetings in the North Division. We think it will be admitted that Mr. Anthony has for once kept at least within the limits of the law. He has not trespassed on the sympathy of the tribunal declaring it with those who are on trial before it. He has not, however, been restrained in many instances by the obligations, but only by his own sense of the fitness of things, from going to the extreme of indecency.

We regret to say, that, although the opinions of the several Judges, a shrinking from stating the inevitable result in all these cases, and declared the bonds void. In the meantime the bonds had passed into the hands of not-criminal holders, who had purchased for an honest price. Under the Federal courts, and obtained judgment thereon. But the Supreme Court of the United States has slandered and mistaken law and justice through its laxity or fatty degeneration in these cases. One of them was also wise enough to intimate that, if the people of the counties obey the mandate to levy the taxes and collect the same, the State courts may interpose effectively in restraining the payment of the money thus collected to the said plaintiffs. It is to be regretted that the Court did not take the responsibility of telling the people that payment was inevitable, and that the cheapest, as well as the most creditable, way was to commence payment at once. On a previous occasion, when the 6th legislation have been had, and the resort to elections by the compulsory process of the Courts, or rebellion. SUMMARY.

Max Maretzek has engaged Academy of Music for a season of Italian Opera, beginning next week, with Miss Kellogg and Carlotta Patti.

The Gold Exchange Bank has commenced paying the premiums on Gold Bonds. Its hold closes on the 20th inst. In the war of the elements the vaults of the bank were in no way affected. The books were saved from the flames by Messrs. Hall & Fowler. The man in charge of the bank was left for dead, but is now recovering. He had a very narrow escape from suffocation. The bank will resume business in a few days.

The Gold Exchange Bank has commenced paying the premiums on Gold Bonds. It will pay 15 to 27 per cent to those who have been carrying the gamut and clearing out in the spoils and loot of broker Ives & Co.

Yours was a reasoned sophistry in the last with confidence overcame the weak.

Grant's Message.

The message is a weighty argument on the questions of the day, and is characterized by the utmost candor. The subject of the reconstruction of the seceded States is treated in a manner which will command the approval of the people. The President says that the Ku Klux Klan is a menace to the peace of the country, and recommends the passage of a law to suppress it. He also recommends the passage of a law to prevent the issuance of fraudulent naturalization papers, and to punish those who issue them. He says that the question of the payment of the bonds is nearly settled. He recommends a reduction of taxation, and says that the time for the payment of the 5-20s will be determined by the action of the Government in regard to the bonds.

The Message.

The message of President Grant, which was published in full in the Tribune this morning, is a very good one, and will be read with interest by the people. It is not a long message, but it is a business message, and contains a great deal of information which the people want to know

The Work Goes Bravely On.

The following is a report of a speech delivered at Prosser evening last at Wilcoxen' Hotel, No. 30 West Kinzie-street, in the Eighteenth Ward. A large and enthusiastic ward meeting had an overflowing audience present, crowded out on account of want of room. Mr. Warren Lyman presided at the meeting, and introduced Mr. Anthony, who spoke as follows:

MR. LYMAN'S SPEECH.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: It is now but seven fifteen and seventy hours since the people of this county have had the privilege of voting for their various Justices, Constables, and all their petted Courts, Boards, and city officers. Since that time, however, many and grievous wrongs have been committed, and the people of this county have been robbed of the right of voting for their officers. The Legislature of this State has seen proper to take away from the people of Cook County the right to vote for Justices, Constables, Boards of Review, and many other officers, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Commissioners, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Justices, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Magistrates, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Constables, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Clerks, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Attorneys, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Prosecutors, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Bailiffs, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Janitors, and to appoint them themselves. This Legislature has also seen proper to take away from the people of this county the right to vote for Police Surgeons, and to appoint them themselves.
